

place in Albany and four people were killed. Donnelly was approached at this point by some friends who evidently told him to keep quiet, for he refused to talk any further.

Rushed for His Assault.
McArdle and Friedman were also very much excited. While Donnelly was making the charges of murder and fraud against McArdle the latter came white with rage, and several times rushed forward as if he would attack his late assailant.

He accused Donnelly of blackmail, and denied that he had ever set fire to his house. Friedman succeeded in quieting him, however, and he refused to talk. He directed all inquiries to his lawyer, David McCullure.

Donnelly is a heavy-set man, with a florid complexion and red mustache. He was neatly dressed in a suit of brownish grey, and wore a soft bowler hat.

In his pocket besides the pistol was found a bunch of keys, a knife, a pocket comb, $15 in bills and some loose change, and several letters and some legal documents.

McArdle is a fine-looking man, of erect build, and slender and well-proportioned. He has snow-white hair and mustache. He was dressed in a black Prince Albert suit. Friedman is a slightly built, thin man with brown hair and red mustache.

Taken to the Tombs.
In charge of Policemen Michael Connor and Michael Griffin, Donnelly and McArdle were taken to the Tombs Police Court. A large crowd followed them all the way, and the officers had to handle fully armed men and women back. At the Complaint Clerk's desk in the Tombs Police Court, McArdle made the following statement:

"My name is Patrick McArdle. I am forty-five years of age. I am an iron manufacturer and live at 238 Elm street, Albany, N. Y. After the suit was dismissed in court Michael Donnelly, the plaintiff, and I were together five times with pistol. I dodged behind the desk and thus saved my life. One bullet grazed my arm. On this declaration the complaint charging Donnelly with assault with attempt to kill was made out.

Had Two Revolvers.
Policeman Connor produced a large .38-calibre Remington revolver, one of which two bullets had been discharged. This weapon, he said, had been handed to him by D. H. Friedman and John McQuaid, who were in court, and who told the officer that they had taken it away from Donnelly.

Policeman Michael Griffin, an attendant in the Court of Sessions, told the jury that he saw Donnelly and McArdle after reading the charges. Neither the complainant nor the witnesses were detained.

Is Donnelly Insane?
It is said that Donnelly got in trouble several years ago by annoying an actress at Wallack's old theatre, and that he was incarcerated for a time because of alleged mental aberration.

Mr. McArdle, as he walked back to the Court-house from the Tombs, was surrounded by a large crowd of people. He is said to have been surprised when he tried to go.

Judge Bischoff's Story.
Judge Bischoff was seen in his private chambers a short time after the shooting in the Tombs. He did not seem to be the least excited, and gave the following version of the affair:

"The case, which was a partnership accounting, came before me yesterday afternoon. I do not think the attack involved was as large as has been stated, and would probably not exceed $500.

"When the case began yesterday the counsel for the defense stated to me that it was a partnership accounting, and that it was a partnership between Donnelly and McArdle, and that they had been partners for some time.

"The counsel for the defense asked that counts be allowed, which I granted. He then asked for a further allowance, which I refused.

"I then called the attention of plaintiffs counsel that he had not taken exception to my ruling, and that he had no objection to my ruling. He then asked that the case be dismissed, which I refused.

FOUND DEAD IN A CAB.

Jersey City Woman Dies Under Peculiar Circumstances.

Was Being Driven Home in the Company of a Negro.

Her Companion, Daniel White, Afterwards Arrested.

At an early hour this morning Policeman Holohan had his attention attracted to a cab which stopped in front of 281 Newark avenue, Jersey City. The driver waited for the occupant of the cab to get out, but as this was not done, the policeman opened the door of the cab, when the body of a dead woman fell out of the vehicle into the policeman's arms.

The dead woman proved to be Mrs. Anderson, of 281 Newark avenue. The driver of the cab said that he had been hired by Daniel White, a colored man, to drive him and the woman to the latter's residence from the house of Ella Chase, of 315 Grand street, and that when they reached Monmouth street White jumped out of the cab and disappeared.

Mrs. Anderson's husband was aroused from his sleep by the police and informed of his wife's death. The body was taken into the house, where County Physician Conover examined it and declared that the woman had died of heart disease.

Subsequently Daniel White was arrested on his sleep by the police and taken to the Tombs Police Court. He was charged with the murder of his wife.

He said that after they started from the Grand street house, Mrs. Anderson became worse and suddenly expired and died. White said he became frightened and jumped out of the cab when he was held to await an investigation by the authorities.

Fair Prospect That It Will Be Completed To-Day.

The work of examining citizens as to their qualifications as jurors for the trial of Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer, charged with the murder of Ludwig Brandt by arsenic and antimony poisons, was resumed before Recorder Smyth in Part II. of the Court of General Sessions this morning, with a fair prospect of completing the jury to-day.

There were ten men in the jury-box, leaving but two men to be selected. But at the present time an indictment against Meyer for the murder of Brandt has been returned, and the jury will be selected from among the names of the jury-box.

LONDON FEARS ANARCHISTS.
Precautions to Prevent the Killing of Politicians.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 24.—Poli and Ferrari, the Italian Anarchists, were again brought up and remanded at Bow Street Police Court to-day. The police having been informed of an Anarchistic outrage being contemplated, the court was closely guarded by a strong detachment of police. The greatest precautions were taken by the authorities in order to prevent a bomb explosion, every person approaching the neighborhood of Bow street being closely watched, and in some cases, people carrying parcels, &c., were politely asked to show their contents.

The two prisoners were brought from Holloway Jail in a prison van, and the route from the prison was lined with policemen and detectives, who were stationed at short intervals of a few yards apart. The police feared that an attempt was to be made to attack the prison van and murder Poli and Ferrari.

MORE RIOTING FEARED.
Hungarian Leader Arrested, and Whole District Excited.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 24.—A despatch from Vienna to The Chronicle says that the riot at Hild-Mass Vassarhely was led by an ex-policeman, named Kovacs. He and many of his companions have been arrested. The whole district is greatly excited, and fears are entertained that there will be further rioting.

The movement is said to be partly anti-Semitic, partly Socialistic and to some extent religious. Many of the rioters belong to the Magyar or Hungarian race. The peasants declare that they have ceased to be Hungarian, have no fatherland, and will neither serve in the army nor pay taxes. They demand that houses and farms be furnished them free, and threaten death to the landlords.

WILL THEY RACE OXFORD?
Winner of Yale-Harvard Event Might Have the Chance.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 24.—The President of the Oxford University Boat Club was informed to-day by the Associated Press of the report in circulation at Cambridge, Mass., that there was a possibility of Oxford challenging the winner of the Yale-Harvard boat race.

The President said that no proposal for a race had been received from the United States, and that the challenge must come from the other side of the Atlantic. He would not say whether Oxford would or would not accept such a challenge, but it is asserted in other quarters that a match race can be arranged with either Yale or Harvard if a contingent challenge be sent immediately.

THIRD OFFICER OF THE LOS ANGELES Charged with Manslaughter.

(By Associated Press.)
MONTEREY, Cal., April 24.—The coroner's investigation into the cause of the wreck of the steamship Los Angeles at Point Sur, on Saturday night, has resulted in a verdict charging Roger Rykoff, the ship's third officer, with manslaughter. The testimony before the coroner's jury was that Rykoff, who was in command of the ship, was negligent and careless, and that he was the cause of the ship's loss.

The bodies of five of the six persons known to have been lost have been recovered. Only one case of small-pox.

There was a marked falling off to-day in the number of cases of small-pox reported at the Health Department. Up to noon only one case was reported. James Chabot, forty, 125 Pearl street, was found ill with the disease and was removed to the hospital.

He Clashed Tailor Levine in His Own House.
Inspector Williams had before him this morning Policeman John Hodge of the Eldridge street station, to answer to the charge of Isaac Levine, a tailor, of 15 Ludlow street, Levine says that Hodge clubbed him brutally Saturday morning at his home, and that he was badly battered and bruised. He says that Hodge was drunk and that he was the cause of his injury.

Inspector Williams believed Levine's story, and ordered Hodge to be taken to the police station. Hodge was probably to be tried next week.

MARKET DULL, PRICES WEAK.

London a Seller of American Securities.

Plenty of Money in the Banks Still Idle.

The bears attacked the market with renewed vigor this morning on the report of the labor troubles, which are now looked upon as quite serious in some quarters. It cannot be said that much long stock has come out, but the bulls have temporarily withdrawn their support, and this gives their opponents a clear field.

The London Stock Exchange, according to the cables received operators at that centre were buying Americans.

The suggestions made by E. Ellery Anderson, one of the receivers of the United Pacific Company, for an adjustment of the debt of the company, of $2,000,000 bonds had no effect on the stock, which was dull and steady.

The demand for money continues slack and the market is entirely devoid of feature. Financial institutions and bankers are still unable to place their funds to advantage in the market, and have to look elsewhere for profit.

Foreign exchange is firm in tone, but actual sales are not so good. A gradual recovery of 1-4 to 1-2 per cent. but the advances failed to hold. The traders were quite indifferent about the course of the market.

BURGLAR GETS A LOCKSMITH.
Coolly Tells Him to Open a Door, as the Key Has Been Lost.

Isaac Formally a Clerk in the Store He Tried to Rob.

Louis Isaac, seventeen years old, of 271 Madison street, was held in $2,000 bail for trial in the Jefferson Market Police Court, to-day, charged with the attempted burglary of Benjamin Bach's men's furnishing goods store, at 303 Canal street.

It appears that on Sunday, April 15, Isaac met a locksmith, Frank Cohn, whom he persuaded to go with him to Bach's place and take his lot of tools along. When they arrived there Isaac told Cohn to open the door. "I am employed here," he said, "and I have lost the key. Can you open it for me?"

"Cohn set to work, but the lock was too strong. He could not force it and had to give up the job. "You come around to-morrow and get your money from the boss, anyway."

Cohn went around next day to collect his money. Mr. Bach obtained an accurate description of the would-be burglar. He identified him as Isaac, who had formerly worked for him, and knew where the money was kept.

The case was reported to the Police and the detective Brown and Clarke have been looking for Isaac ever since. They arrested him last evening.

BEARS POUND WHEAT.
But the Attack Was Unproductive and Prices Recovered.

The bears pounded the wheat market this morning in the hope that they would be able to compel the longs to sell their wheat. The result was a decline of about 1-2c at the opening. May selling here down to 61-3-4, and at 57-1-4 at Chicago.

The longs, however, refused to part with their wheat, and this led to a firmer market, so that by 12 o'clock the loss was all recovered.

Foreign markets were lower. Corn was steady, but 1-4c. lower, with May at New York opening at 45-5 and 31-1-2 at Chicago. Oats were easier at the opening, but afterwards grew firmer. Provisions were about 10c. lower.

The long Island City Board of Supervisors met at the Court-House to-day and organized for the ensuing year. The new Board stands six Republicans and one Democrat, the latter being the representative from Long Island City. This is the first time in twenty years that Republicans have had control of the Board.

Martin B. Word, of Hempstead, was elected clerk of the Board for twenty years.

Missed a Chance to Spring His Harry Howard Street Resolution.

That portion of the city bounded by Thirty-second and Thirty-fourth streets, Broadway on the east and Sixth avenue on the west, will hereafter be known as Greeley Square, in honor of Horace Greeley. The Board of Aldermen at its meeting to-day adopted a report designating Greeley Square as described.

Alderman Flynn moved uneasily in his chair, and it was feared by his colleagues that he believed that he is the man who would take advantage of the opportunity while the Board was naming new streets to spring his time-honored resolution to change Bayard street to Harry Howard street, after the first Chief of the Fire Department. He did not, however, and by neglecting to do so lost the only chance he will have for calling up the resolution for the next six months, as the law prohibits the renaming of streets between the months of May and December. For all while the twenty-nine other Aldermen and President McCellan appear to be profoundly gratified.

The Law Committee reported adversely on the ordinance giving permission to owners of soda water stands or erect stands on sidewalks within the stoop line of buildings. The Committee said the Board should not grant a special permission, providing the owners of property consented to the erection of stands in front of their houses.

TRUCKLOAD OF BAD SARDINES
Thought to Be the Same as Poisoned the Morton Family.

Fruit Inspector B. C. Fuller reported to Dr. Lederle, Acting Chief Chemist to the Board of Health, this morning that he had seized and condemned 4,700 cans of domestic sardines, and disposed of them at the Canal street dump.

The sardines were found by an inspector on a truck bound for an auction-house. The driver stated that he got them from Seltman Bros., wholesale sale house, 46 West street. Inspector Fuller said that the fish were in a state of decay and unfit for sale.

Dr. Lederle to-day discovered by comparison that they were exactly the same as the ones which were found in a recent case of poisoning. The sardines were seized to-day by several Health inspectors for good measure.

DENIED BY OFFICIALS.
No Truth in the Report that Nicaraguan Canal Has Been Seized.

Statements were published this morning to the effect that the Nicaraguan Government had seized all the property of the Nicaraguan Canal Company at Greytown, on a judgment for an alleged breach of contract. The report was denied by officials of the company.

Inquiries were made by a reporter at the offices of the company in this city, and it was stated that the company was not in a position to make any statement. The company's property was not seized.
